

Yellowjacket Notebook
Remembering Chuck Resler

Charles “Chuck” Resler was a 1930 alumnus of the University and a former executive with the Eastman Kodak Company. In the early 1980s, he met with then athletic director Dr. John Reeves to discuss creation of a basketball tournament that would bring like-minded academic institutions to Rochester. The tournament, which bears his name, was born in 1983-84 for both men and women. (The R.T. French Company sponsored a women’s tournament in 1981-82 and 1982-83)

Mr. Resler was a benefactor to the University. In 1992, he was inducted into the University’s Athletic Hall of Fame as part of the first induction class. He passed away in 1998.

A plaque recognizing his contributions to the basketball

Mr. Resler was a fixture at Yellowjacket basketball games until his passing in 1998.

programs and listing the championship teams in his tournament is on display in the Lathan Lobby of the Palestra.
