The Rochester Softball team had another successful season on the diamond this past spring. The team qualified for the NCAA Regional Tournament for the 7th time in program history after winning the Liberty League Tournament and gaining the automatic qualifying bid. Kayla Kibling earned First Team NFCA All-Region honors. She was the glue for the infield at short-stop and also led the team in batting average at .426.

Coach Yerdon is in her ninth season as Head Coach of the Yellowjackets. During that time she has guided the Yellowjackets to three NCAA Appearances, including a trip to the College World Series in 2014. She has guided three players to NFCA All-American honors, including two first team selections. Her career record is 209-133 and 62-22 in the Liberty League. Before Rochester, she was a pitcher for Binghamton University, where she is still the career record holder in strikeouts (431) and earned run average (1.40). Yerdon earned Division II NFCA All-Region honors in 1999 and was the NECC All-Conference Pitcher of the Year in 1999 and 2000. In 2002, she earned America East All-Conference honors. Following graduation in 2002, Yerdon served as a graduate assistant pitching coach at Binghamton University, before joining the Rochester softball staff in 2004. Yerdon is joined by Assistant Coaches, Jenna Modic from the University of Pittsburgh.
