

AT HALFTIME:

Six student-athletes will be recognized with the Lysle D. "Spike" Garnish Awards, recognizing accomplishments on the field and in the classroom. The six athletes are: Amanda Danforth (women's cross country/track & field), Gavin Hickey (Spencerport, NY/men's soccer), Brian Kowalski (football), Jessica Lerman (Penn Yan, NY/women's lacrosse), Deepa Popuri (women's tennis), and Claire Willscher (women's swimming).

Also at halftime, the Garnish Committee will present the Garnish Memorial Citation to Clint Stone, the equipment manager for the University. Stone has been working at the University for nearly 40 years. Pictures of the former Garnish Citation winners hang in the lobby of Fauver Stadium near the center doors.

PRE-GAME:

The National Anthem will be sung tonight by the Midnight Ramblers, one of the student organization singing groups.

A BUSY DAY ON CAMPUS:

Tonight's football game concludes a busy afternoon on campus. The women's soccer team earned its first victory of the season earlier today with a 3-0 win over SUNY Geneseo. The men's team played Geneseo at 3 pm.

The women's volleyball team hosted SUNY Geneseo, SUNY Fredonia, and Alfred University in a four-team event being held in the Palestra and in the Zornow Sports Centre. The last round of competition was scheduled to begin at 5:30 pm.

Golf is competing in the Cornell/Colgate Invitational this weekend. Round one was today at Cornell. The competition wraps up Sunday at Colgate's Seven Oaks course.

Field hockey and both cross country teams are idle this weekend.

THIS STARTS A RUN OF THREE:

Tonight's game begins a run of three straight at home to start the 2001 season. Rochester hosts Johns Hopkins University next Saturday at 1 pm. On Sept. 22, the Yellowjackets open the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association season when St. Lawrence comes to Fauver Stadium at 1 pm.

After that, the 'Jackets play three of the next four on the road - at RPI (Sept. 29), at Hobart (Oct. 6), and at Washington [MO] (Oct. 20). The string is broken when the University of Chicago, the defending champion in the University Athletic Association, comes to Fauver Stadium on Oct. 13 for a Homecoming matchup.
